

P-Campus Symposium

06./07.01.2022

Guidelines for oral presentations

- Please use the template of the P-Campus as a presentation-pptx. The template can be found in the internal area of the P-Campus website or it can be requested by e-mail from the coordination office.
- The presentations are to be given in English.
- Each presentation should be about 7 minutes long. There will be 3 further minutes for the discussion plus the exchange.
- Please use our test offer, which we will inform you about in time.

Guidelines for posters

- The template of the P-Campus is to be used (pptx file). The template can be found in the internal area of the P-Campus website or it can be requested from the coordination office by e-mail.
- You will also have the opportunity on the first day to present your poster in a short presentation of 1 to 3 minutes (Science Slam). Please tick this on your registration for the symposium if you would like to make use of it.
- There will be also a poster session. We will set up a video conference room for you, which can also be tested in advance. We will send you a test date in time.
